

Executive Director Robert Schneider Discusses the Foundation on WGTD Radio's "Morning Show"

On January 26, 2011, Kenosha Community Foundation's Executive Director, Robert Schneider appeared on public radio station WGTD's "The Morning Show hosted by Gregory Berg".

Mr. Schneider discussed how community foundations like Kenosha's operate - details on the endowment and trusts that it manages as well as the foundation's investment strategies and how proceeds from investments support projects and scholarships in the community.

Mr. Schneider also outlined the Kenosha Community Foundation's grant and scholarship priorities, the grantmaking process and made special mention of the foundation's March 4th grant application deadline.

To hear a tape of the broadcast:

GO TO http://www.wgtd.org/Morning_Show.asp#

FIND the section "To listen to previous Morning Shows", then PRESS "click here".

SELECT the 1-26-11 entry.